HOME / POPULAR TOPICS / FOOD STAMPS

Food stamps provide monthly funds for families to purchase groceries.

It is unclear if this is supposed to be the Title field, or if "Food Stamps" is the title and this is a Summary / Dek of some sort. This needs to be hashed out

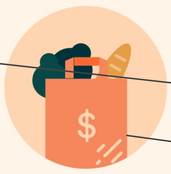
List paragraph type

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

List title

- The Georgia Food Stamp Program (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), is a federally-funded program that provides monthly benefits to ~~low-income~~ households to help pay for the cost of food.
- Food Stamp benefits are issued on an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card, which can be used at EBT-approved food retailers.
- The Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS) issues Food Stamp benefits.

List elements. Multi-instance text field where each list item is an instance.



Optional Image

Reference paragraph type. Allows editors to choose an existing piece of content and select how it is displayed. In this case a How Do I node has been selected. The fields specified below would not be entered onto this page. Editors would simply choose the content to be displayed, and a display mode.

HOW TO APPLY FOR FOOD STAMPS

Title from the referenced How Do I

1. Find out if you are eligible to receive SNAP benefits

   Check eligibility online

2. If you are eligible, fill out the application form

   Download application form in:

   English | English large type | Spanish

   Request a paper application by visiting your local DFCS office or by calling the Customer Contact Center at 1.877.423.4746.

   Find your local DFCS office

3. File your application

   You must hand deliver, fax or mail the completed application to your local DFCS office.

4. Telephone interview

   After your application is filed, you or a member of your household must participate in a phone interview conducted by a case manager at DFCS. The person who is interviewed must know about your household situation and be ready to answer questions related to your household situation.

5. Next Steps

   If you are determined eligible for benefits, you will receive these within 30 days.

Another instance of a List Paragraph type, but with a different view mode selected. It is also possible there may be a Checklist-specific paragraph type, the issues around that need to be hashed out.

WHAT YOU NEED TO APPLY FOR FOOD STAMPS

- Identification (state issued ID or driver's license)
- Proof of your citizenship such as birth certificate, U.S. passport, hospital record, etc.
- Social security numbers for persons applying for benefits

Need to identify what this is. If there is more information to be associated with a list item, like a link or help text, then that would play into decisions about whether we work this into the List type or create a new type specifically for more complex lists.

Same question here. Is this something that can apply to all lists, and is just part of a checklist view mode? Or is it an indication that we need a checklist-specific type?

This section will be standardized, although there needs to be some discussion around how we specify what exactly goes in there.
